Message from the Chief . . .

Greetings Mr. President and Town Council Members! The following narrative is a summary of our accomplishments during the past Year 2012, and an overview of our goals and objectives for the St. John Police Department in Year 2013. I am pleased to report that we continue to maintain a low crime rate in our community. The officers have worked diligently at reducing the rate of burglaries by nearly 40%.

The officers under my command continue to demonstrate the highest level of professionalism and diligence in carrying out their law enforcement duties. Every one of them continues to exhibit high standards and commitment to their profession. I commend all officers and our staff as we continue to work into the New Year 2013. I am proud that our Police Department continues to demonstrate a team effort to reach our objectives and goals.

Major Goals in 2013 are as follows:

- I. Indiana Law Enforcement Accreditation (ILEAC) is currently underway. This is a process that will elevate our Department to the highest standards of professionalism when completed. It will make our Department stand out as a unique example of outstanding professionalism in law enforcement to the community and the citizens of St. John. There are only twenty-two (22) police departments in Indiana who have achieved this prestigious status.
- II. The St. John Police Department was awarded a federal grant which will allow us to hire an additional officer and increase our staffing. This hire will allow us to implement a School Resource Officer (SRO) at Lake Central High School. This has been a major goal of the St. John Police Department. The addition of this officer will alleviate many of the safety concerns regarding our children, as those concerns will be addressed with the presence and duties of this officer in place.

I am personally grateful for the opportunity to work with, and appreciate the continued cooperation of, the St. John Town Council and Metropolitan Police Commission. Thank you for your support.

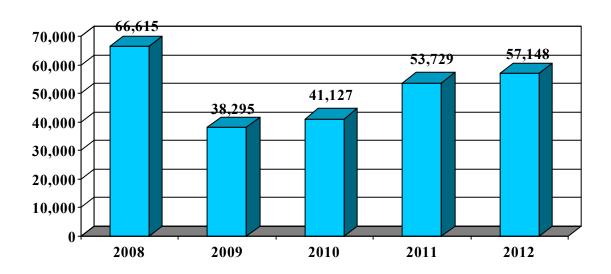

Sincerely.

Fred A. Frego Chief of Police
